SAO has been removed from the 7-Day policy. As discussed, this can take up to 30 days to be distributed to all mailboxes but should only take a week or so. Now that all the necessary actions are complete, is it ok to close the ticket or would you like to keep it open for 30 more days?

Just sending the weekly update. No change in status, all is progressing as expected. We are still on track to remove SAO from the 7-day policy on 7/24.
